

Stylebible Trend:

How to do metallic

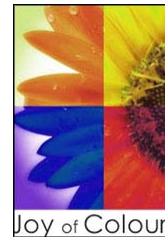

Sites to Watch: Men

a la Mode and

Vagabond

Men, we have a few good things for you in this Monday's newsletter. Brogues and websites, which we hope you like. Stylebible lasses, there's always something for you too! Anyway, bookmark the sites to watch and grab yourself a hot bag from Net-a-porter and men get the shoes with Stylebible members' exclusive invite to the Patrick Cox VIP Sale.

Joy of Colour's Michaela Jedinak has given us an insider's guide on how to wear metallics this season. We say less is more!

Metallic is the best accessory to brighten your look in this spring. Men and women alike can do it day or evening. It goes with everything and'll give you that futuristic look, because, if you haven't heard, futurism is definitely on the 'going up' list of trends this season. Think Vorticism, Epstein's sculptures, Matrix cool and, of course, Star Wars (how we wish cinnamon bun hair were cool too)!

We think the Metallic bag is a great transition accessory between drab winter and summer brights. Men, for you it's the metallic Brogue. So dig in!

* Joy of Colour's Michaela Jedinak is the Personal Shopper at Cliveden House.

To Contact Joy of Colour Click Here

launch this week.

Men, if you're loathe to shop for a pint of milk, let alone a wardrobe, Men a la Mode, a sort of net-a-porter for boys, is set to launch this week and it looks wicked. Ladies and gents alike can dig into Vagabond's new site, also set to

Stylebible Latest News