

Fashion news

Stunning accessories,

beautiful dresses and gorgeous giveaways

Twinkle tote We're loving the new money-can't-buy crystal-encrusted Daniel Swarovski Couture bespoke bags, which have been gracing the arms of many an A-list celeb at red carpet events recently. Us lesser mortals can get our hands on similar designs from his main collection. This one costs £3,000. 020 7499 7555, www.swarovski.com.

Ten years on top

Milliner Emma Fielden is celebrating a decade of designing gorgeous, ornate headdresses, such as this stunning silver bow, from £45. There's something to suit every bride-to-be and she also offers a bespoke service. 07767 818464.

Full-on and fabulous

Funky American jewellery designer Tarina Tarantino has launched a gorgeous bridal range, featuring hair accessories, earrings, necklaces, bracelets and handbags, available at Fenwick and selected other stockists. Prices from £32. Call 020 7629 9161 or visit www.tarinatarantino.com.

"I love the girly feel of the latest Eternity Prom collection at www.eternitybridal.co.uk"
Christie Bradley, Wedding's fashion stylist

Win an online colour consultation

Michaela Jedinak at the Joy of Colour (www.joyofcolour.com) is offering five readers the chance to win a personalised online style and colour service worth £49.99, which ensures brides look their best on their special day. Send a postcard with your name, address and email to Wedding / Joy Of Colour Giveaway, Blue Fin Building, 110 Southwark Street, London SE1 0SU, no later than 6 September 2007.*

Beautiful brides

For sophisticated on-trend dresses in a variety of feminine styles, head to Selfridges in London and check out the latest Vera Wang collection, which starts from £2,500. 020 7318 3095, www.verawang.com.

Pure vintage

Check out Blackburn Bridal Couture for hot American designers, such as Anne Barge (www.annebarge.com) and Claire Pettibone (www.clairepettibone.com). Best known for her wonderful wedding lingerie, Claire Pettibone's dress collection is based on 1920s Parisian designs and features vintage-inspired lace and embroidery. This antique-style lace gown, pictured, is one of our favourites (price on application). Call 020 8297 1188 or visit www.blackburnbridal.co.uk.

